Macrotech Developers sell properties worth ₹1,900 crore in London

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, January 5

REALTY FIRM MACROTECH DEVELOPERS on Wednesday said it has achieved sales bookings of around ₹1,900 crore during the quarter ended December in its two projects in London.

Mumbai-based Macrotech Developers (MDL), which is one of the leading real estate firms in India, markets its properties under the Lodha brand.

In a regulatory filing, Macrotech informed that its UK projects had their best-ever quarter of sales of ₹191 million (around ₹1,900 crore) in the quarter (Q3FY22).

"Basis this, we believe that MDL's investment in the UK will be significantly repatriated back to India in FY23," the filing said.

Earlier, the company's Managing Director and CEO Abhishek Lodha had told PTI that the company was expecting to receive ₹1,500-2,000 crore from London projects.

Macrotech Developers, earlier named Lodha Developers, had made a foray into the London market in 2013 with the acquisition of the landmark MacDonald House at 1 Grosvenor Square in prime Central London, from the Canadian government, for over

Macrotech Developers, earlier named Lodha Developers, had made a foray into the London market in 2013 with the acquisition of MacDonald House

₹3,100 crore.

The group acquired another site in prime Central London, New Court at 48 Carey Street for ₹90 million in 2014.

Giving further updates on the two projects, MDL informed that the sales bookings in the 1 Grosvenor Square project during the July-September quarter stood at ₹110 million (around ₹1,100 crore) following the relaxation of the restriction on international travel.

The momentum continued in the December quarter, with the strongest pre-sales of ₹177 million (around ₹1,770 crore) in the December quarter, it added.

"With these two-quarters of strong performance, the ₹225 million bonds are likely to be repaid fully in next 4 months from the sales proceeds, well in advance to its scheduled maturity of March 2023," the filing said.

Basis the current trajectory, the company expects the project to be fully sold out well ahead of the target of Q4, FY24.

On the Lincoln Square project, the company said that it has achieved pre-sales of ₹14 million (around ₹140 crore) during the third quarter of this fiscal.

"The project remains on track for a sell-out over the next 1-2 quarters," it added.

Meanwhile, in Indian business, Macrotech Developers' sales bookings stood at ₹5,970 crore during the last fiscal.

In the current fiscal, the company has set a target of around 50% growth in its sales bookings to ₹9,000 crore.

Macrotech is currently developing residential, commercial and warehousing projects in Mumbai Metropolitan Region (MMR) and Pune only.

However, it has recently announced plans to enter the Bengaluru property market to capture the expected rise in housing demand from IT/ITES employees.

EV service hubs: Hero Electric partners with SpareIt

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
Mumbai, January 5

ELECTRIC TWO-WHEELER MAKER Hero Electric has partnered with automotive after-market multi-sided platform SpareIt, to train private garage owners and use their network as EV service hubs.

As part of the collaboration, SpareIt will offer these garages as private garage owners (PGO) for Hero Electric's B2B and B2C clients, a release said on Wednesday.

Additionally, SpareIt locate app will integrate fleets and customers for garage discovery and service calls to make EV owning experience seamless, it added.

Set up in 2020, SpareIt — which enables small and independent garages with easy access to spare sourcing, business management tools and upskilling programmes to make them EV-ready — cur-

Hero Electric has over 100 EV trained garages with charging points in their network across Bangalore.

Moving a step ahead in fostering EV ecosystem and PGOs growth, Hero Electric will provide training to garage owners associated with SpareIt besides coaching trainers from SpareIt as part of their train-the-trainer programme, the release said.

The company believes that a robust and well-equipped service network is a key to a satisfying customer experience. Mechanics need to be re-skilled and trained to readily address various issues faced by customers in the operation, usage, and maintenance of the electric scooters, said Sohinder Gill, CEO at Hero Electric.

"This partnership further brings us closer to our commitment of training 20,000 PGOs and also reflects the growth of the electric vehicle segment, fastening the green mobility shift. We look forward to this next phase of electric mobility where our PGOs drive this green revolution," Gill added.

TVS Motor appoints Venkat Viswanathan as technical advisor for electric mobility

FE BUREAU
Chennai, January 5

GIVING FURTHER IMPETUS to its EV plans, TVS Motor Company on Wednesday announced the appointment of Venkat Viswanathan as technical advisor for electric mobility. Viswanathan is currently an associate professor of mechanical engineering at Carnegie Mellon University and is a global leader in advanced batteries for electric mobility.

Viswanathan brings on board the expertise in energy storage and Li-ion batteries, specifically to electric vehicles and planes. This association will significantly enhance TVS Motor Company's battery technology capabilities and strengthen its commitment to offer best-in-class green mobility globally.

Sudarshan Venu, joint MD, TVS Motor Company, said, "We are delighted to associate with Venkat Viswanathan, who will play an important role in guiding us in the electric mobility journey. He is a thought leader in the field of innovations of advanced battery technology. His major strides in battery technology will give us a competitive edge in delivering value for money, superior technology, and aspirational electric vehicles to meet the fast-evolving customer needs."

TVS Motor Company is transforming itself into a digital age company, with a connected, sustainable and electric brand. The electric mobility business at TVS Motor Company has made significant strides towards developing new products and technologies. The company has committed ₹1,000 crore in that direction, a good portion of which has already been invested. With the aim to lead the way to electrification, TVS Motor is readying a complete portfolio of two & three-wheelers in the range of 5-25kW, all of which will be in the market within the next 24 months.

Venkat Viswanathan, technical advisor for electric mobility, TVS Motor Company, said, "I am excited to associate with TVS Motor Company to be a part of their vision to build a strong EV ecosystem. I look forward to working in great synergy with the company known for its pioneering technologies in future mobility. Together we will go miles to create a more sustainable EV ecosystem."

Prior to joining Carnegie Mellon, Viswanathan, received his PhD at Stanford University and did postdoctoral studies at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. In addition to his professorship, he serves as a technical advisor and scientific advisory board member at QuantumScape, a company developing next-generation solid-state lithium-metal batteries for use in electric vehicles, and chief scientist at Aionics, a company, bringing cutting-edge machine-learning methods for battery materials innovation.

TVS Motor had announced strategic tie-ups with government bodies like CESL and public charging partners like Tata Power as a step towards enabling a greener future and building a network of world-class public charging infrastructure. Additionally, the company acquired majority stakes in EGO Movement, the European e-bike company reaffirming its commitment towards electrification and its broader sustainability agenda globally.

The company also recently announced the extension and expansion of a long-term partnership with BMW Motorrad for the joint development of new platforms and future technologies, including electric vehicles, specific to the two companies only.

E-cycles: Voltrix Mobility eyes 4-5% market share by 2024

FE BUREAU
Chennai, January 5

CHENNAI-BASED VOLTRIX MOBILITY on Wednesday entered the e-cycle segment with the launch of the Tresor for office commute in urban cities. By 2024, the company plans to have 150 retail outlets in six urban cities to garner 4-5% of market share with a sales of more than 40,000 units.

Viveak M Palanivasan, founder & CEO, Voltrix Mobility told media persons over a virtual press meet that the firm has started with the firm with initial seed capital from the promoters. Voltrix Mobility has also plans of creating a manufacturing facility for electronic components for the e-bike segment in India.

"Currently, 70% of the parts are made in India, while 30% are imported. By the year end, we are going to set up an electronic components making unit in Tirumudivakkam in Tamil Nadu," he said.

According to him, the Tresor comes with a removable integrated lithium-ion battery that eliminates the need for charging stations and offers 60-80 km per charge and reaches a top speed of 25 kmph.

It can be used both for outdoor and indoor purposes. He said the current market for e-cycle is in a nascent stage and growing by 3X, and it would reach 6X by 2024.

In the first two years, the company aims to sell 20,000 units and double it later on.

The e-bicycle comes with five levels of pedal assist, throttle-only and manual pedalling mode. It is priced at ₹55,999. It can be booked for ₹999 and will deliveries will start from second week of January.

The company will be launching two more products in the next six months catering to different customer profiles.

Over 45 m Indians dined out at their favourite restaurants in 2021: Report

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, January 5

OVER 45 MILLION Indians satiated their food cravings by dining out at their favourite restaurants in 2021, with Delhi again emerging as the country's Dining Capital, according to a report.

An average bill of ₹2,670 was paid in 2021 as compared to ₹1,907 in 2020, according to the report by India's largest dining out and restaurant tech platform Dineout.

About 45 million Indians saved ₹1,360 crore while booking 8,588 tables per hour using Dineout in 2021, as per the Dineout Trends Report 2021.

Delhi bagged the title of 'Dining Capital of India' for the third time in a row accounting for 32% of the total diners in India followed by Bengaluru at 18%.

Butter Chicken, Dal Makhni and Naan yet again won the league making North Indian food a hit among Indians at 38%, Chinese at 18% and Continental at 16%, according to the report.

The City of Lakes, Udaipur, is the new 'City of Love' with 44% of its bookings under 'Table for 2', whereas the cities of Agra and Ludhiana had the maximum 'Table for 4' reservations, the report findings showed.

Owing to the higher disposable income thanks to people's WFH (work from home) lifestyles, luxury dining across India has increased by as much as 120% and fine dining by 105%, said the report.

Kanpur Metro: JSL supplies 2,000-tonne stainless steel

JINDAL STAINLESS (JSL) on Wednesday said it has supplied 2,000 tonne of steel for the Kanpur Metro Project, inaugurated by Prime Minister Narendra Modi last week.

On December 28, the Prime Minister inspected the Kanpur Metro Rail Project and undertook a metro ride from the IIT metro station to Geeta Nagar.

For the project, Jindal Stainless supplied high-quality stainless steel in various tempers (strength levels) to Alstom. The first train set was handed over to UPMRC by Alstom on September 18, 2021. PTI

Pearls group case: CBI files supplementary chargesheet

THE CBI HAS filed a supplementary chargesheet against 24 people in connection with a ₹60,000-crore Ponzi scam allegedly run by the Pearls group, officials said on Wednesday.

In the chargesheet filed before a special CBI court in New Delhi, the central probe agency has also named three companies, Pearls Infrastructure Projects Ltd, ARSS Infrastructure Projects Ltd and Jain InfraProjects Ltd, they said.

The supplementary chargesheet names 11 accused businessmen who were arrested on December 22, 2021. PTI
